Festival Bell Celebrates 125th Anniversary of the Viaduct on South Main Street

MOUNT VERNON – The 2017 Dan Emmett Music & Arts Festival will be auctioning its 16th in the series of Festival Bells during the annual Festival Bell Auction. As in previous years, the Festival Bell is a bronze casting prepared by the Verdin Bell Company of Cincinnati, Ohio, who also cast the Ohio, Knox County, and Mount Vernon Bicentennial Bells. The previous auctions have been a tremendous success, raising substantial money for the benefit of the Festival.

Twelve Festival Bells are auctioned each year to create a series of annual Dan Emmett Music & Arts Festival Bells. The Bells are individually cast, unique, and year specific. They are cast to resemble the 2003 Ohio Bicentennial Bell, the 2005 Mount Vernon Bicentennial Bell, and the 2008 Knox County Bicentennial Bell.

The artwork is designed and prepared by Gambier artisan Tim Yoder, of Deznign It. The 2017 Festival Bell commemorates the 125th anniversary of the Viaduct on South Main Street. On the reverse side, the Bell bears the year and a beautiful script of the Festival name. Each handcrafted Bell is 8” tall, individually numbered by grading, and will be provided with a certificate of authenticity. The Bells have become a wonderful collector’s item, especially for those who have been able to secure each Bell in the series. A photo of this year’s Festival Bell is on the Festival web site.

The Festival Bell Auction will be held at the 2017 Dan Emmett Music & Arts Festival on Saturday, August 12th from the First-Knox Main Stage on the Square at approximately 8:00 p.m., preceding the live concert by country music ICON Lee Greenwood.

The 2017 Dan Emmett Music & Arts Festival runs August 10th-13th in Downtown Mount Vernon with various activities each day. This year’s Festival is made possible through the contributions of Ariel Corporation and First-Knox National Bank.
